Heather Wilks

to speak on

Pendulum Dowsing

Heather is Vice-President of the Dowsing Society of Victoria (DSV) and the DSV Newsletter Editor. She uses dowsing to help herself and others. After learning the basics of Yes/No dowsing in 2001, she went on to discover ways to use dowsing to change energy. She has written a book called, 'Dowsing Heals'. It is a combined practical manual and workbook covering everything from basic to advanced dowsing. It includes scripted protocols for dowsing many different aspects of life. Heather uses pendulum dowsing as part of her healing practice which integrates a range of complimentary modalities. Her goal is to help people achieve profound results and create deep changes – in less time than more conventional methods. She works in person in Carnegie, and online via Zoom or Skype and offers Remote Dowsing.

After introducing Yes/No dowsing, Heather will share the magic of how to use a pendulum to change energy. So often people feel powerless to make changes in their lives, yet with knowledge like this we can be empowered to bring healing to ourselves, others and animals. She will teach us how we can transform relationships, situations and often even the weather. Advanced dowsing like this is not widely known or often shared. This is a special opportunity to discover the power at your fingertips to make exciting and dramatic changes for yourself and others. (Please bring a pendulum, if you have one.)

The Evenings' Presentation will Focus on;
