Crystal Healing ~ An Overview

Qi is recognised as one of Australia's experts on ornamental (semi-precious) gemstones. She has owned and operated a multi-award winning crystal shop and healing centre in Melbourne for over 25 years. She is well respected for maintaining a grounded balance between the scientific and metaphysical aspects of the crystals. She is careful not to push dogma and presents the information in a broad historical context looking at different belief systems. In this way, she gives people the information but encourages them to develop their own relationship with each crystal.

Crystals have universal appeal that draw you in, delighting people of all ages and background. For thousands of years, crystals have been objects of great value and historic interest with almost every culture sharing a long-held belief that the crystals' ability to store and transmit energy also makes them powerful tools for healing.

The Evenings' Presentation will Focus on;-

- The Science behind Vibrational Medicine and Crystal Healing, Plus How People 'Believe' they Work.
- Clear Quartz - As the Most Important Healing Stone and an Introduction to the Specific and Vast Varieties of Natural Crystal Configurations of Quartz Crystals and their Specific Uses in Healing.
- Applications – the Different Ways Crystals can be Used for Healing.
- Different Natural Configurations and Shapes and their Specific Meanings and Applications for Crystal Healing.
- Birthstones – A Brief History of the Historical Relationship between Crystals and Astrology.
