Natural Alignment through Geo Harmonics

Cameron has over 20 years of Engineering, Consulting and Training experience. He has spent a life time learning methodologies and disciplines and their practical applications. In the last 10 years, he has been involved in alternative energy research and technology specialising in Hydrogen, and in more recent years, focusing on Geodesics (As Above, As Below) the mathematics of the universe and geo-polymer transition and utilisation.

Cameron believes that we are living in interesting times, indeed! There has never been a better time to equip ourselves with the tools and insights to meet the challenges of the coming decade.

With unprecedented access to information like never before we find ourselves seeking the truths.

The time is now for these truths to be revealed with not just knowledge but through application and utilisation.

The Evenings' Presentation will Focus on;

- Enriching and Transitioning of Hydrogen/Oxygen and Other Gases and its Utilisation.
- The Natural Relationship Between Light and Audible Harmonics (Correcting Isaac Newton and Adjusting Healing Spectra).
- Preparing for the Fall of the Systems As We Know it and the Transition to a Peaceful Sustainable Future.
